IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Horry County Department of Airports Grand Opening of Chick-fil-A at MYR

Myrtle Beach, SC, April 24, 2018 – Today, the Myrtle Beach International Airport (MYR) welcomed its newest dining option, Chick-fil-A.

The Myrtle Beach International Airport’s food and beverage options include Steak ‘n Shake, Cinnabon, Subway, Nacho Hippo, Aviation Grill, The Pavilion Bar & Grill, Boardwalk Café and now Chick-fil-A. The airport’s food & beverage program is managed by MSE Branded Foods, Inc.

“Passenger traffic at the Myrtle Beach International Airport continues to increase as our airline partners introduce more nonstop air service options and expands capacity levels in existing markets,” said Scott Van Moppes, director of airports. “As passenger levels continue to increase we need to ensure that we continue optimizing the customer experience with choice and selection. Today’s Grand Opening of Chick-fil-A, joining recently introduced Cinnabon, Aviator Grill plus just renovated Subway and The Pavilion Bar & Grill, helps round out the selection of dining options at MYR. We thank MSE Branded Foods for its investment into the airport, as we all strive to make our guests visit to Myrtle Beach, SC and the entire Grand Strand a memorable one.”
