Myrtle Beach International Airport (MYR) November 2019 Passenger Counts

Myrtle Beach, SC, December 16, 2019 During November 2019, a total of 148,493 passengers passed through the Myrtle Beach International Airport (MYR).

At MYR, passenger traffic during November 2019, which includes enplanements and deplanements, totaled 148,493 compared to 136,055 in November 2018. The number of people arriving on flights, or deplanements, was 72,283 compared to 66,932 in 2018.

“November 2019, was the busiest November on record for the Myrtle Beach International Airport,” said Scott Van Moppes, director of airports. “Overall passenger counts were up over nine percent compared to last year, and year-to-date a record-breaking 2.5 million passengers have passed through our facilities. The amazing growth at the Airport is due to the strength and popularity of the Grand Strand, and our airline partners who continue to expand their operations at MYR.”
