“United’s decision to add nonstop Washington Dulles air service, to its existing offerings of Newark and Chicago, is exciting news for the Myrtle Beach area and a testament to the strong recovery our destination continues to experience,” said Scott Van Moppes, Director of Airports. “United was unable to operate its full schedule at MYR in 2020 due to the pandemic and we are thrilled to see them return with added service in 2021.”

About the Myrtle Beach International Airport (MYR) The Myrtle Beach International Airport is the gateway to Myrtle Beach, SC and the Grand Strand. The Myrtle Beach International Airport is owned by Horry County and operated by the Department of Airports. MYR is served by Allegiant, American Airlines, Delta Air Lines, Frontier Airlines, Porter Airlines, Spirit, Sun Country and United Airlines.
