Horry County Department of Airports Spirit Airlines Announces Service to Orlando, FL

Myrtle Beach, SC, June 8, 2018 – Spirit Airlines announced that it has extended its booking schedule for its Baltimore-Washington International Airport (BWI) service, while introducing new nonstop air service to Orlando International Airport (MCO).

Starting November 10, 2018, Spirit will add nonstop year-round air service between the Myrtle Beach International Airport (MYR) and Orlando International Airport (MCO). Also, Spirit will convert its seasonal nonstop air service for Baltimore-Washington International Airport (BWI) to year-round service. Visit spirit.com to learn more and book travel.

Myrtle Beach (MYR) to/from:	Starts:	Frequency:
Orlando (MCO)	November 10	2x weekly, year-round
Baltimore-Washington (BWI)	November 10	2x weekly, year-round

“We know many of our Guests love to plan ahead and save,” said Mark Kopczak, Spirit Airlines’ Vice President of Network Planning. “By extending our booking schedule, Guests have the opportunity to lock in low fares for the holiday travel season. With the addition of several new routes, they’ll have even more destinations to choose for their winter getaways.”

“Spirit’s announcement is incredible news for the marketplace,” said Mark Lazarus, Horry County Council Chairman. “Our airport is the only one in the region with nonstop air service to the Orlando International Airport (MCO). Spirit’s decision to commence service from MYR speaks volumes to the strength of our community. The decision to expand nonstop BWI service, from seasonal to year-round, and the introduction of nonstop, year-round air service to Orlando, FL is huge for the Grand Strand and we thank Spirit for their continued commitment and growth at the Myrtle Beach International Airport.”
