

9 Cities Getting Nonstop Access to Myrtle Beach in Time for Summer

Spirit Airlines adds nine new or resuming nonstop routes from across the Eastern U.S.

MIRAMAR, Fla., Feb. 16, 2022 – More Spirit Guests are now only one flight away from the beaches and championship golf courses of Myrtle Beach. Spirit Airlines (NYSE: SAVE) today announced it will be connecting even more vacationers to the 60 miles of beaches known as the Grand Strand. The airline will launch nine nonstop routes to Myrtle Beach International Airport (MYR) this spring, introducing five new destinations, and resuming service from four other cities.

The service begins with nonstop routes to Manchester and a resumption of operations to Niagara Falls in April. Next up, routes to Indianapolis, Minneapolis, Houston, Louisville, Milwaukee, and St. Louis will launch ahead of Memorial Day weekend in May. In June, Spirit will connect Myrtle Beach to its newest market, Rochester.

“Lots of people are looking to head out to great leisure destinations like the South Carolina beaches this summer, and we’re excited to launch some new routes and resume others to help our Guests get their fun in the sun,” said John Kirby, Vice President of Network Planning at Spirit Airlines. “These new routes, in addition to our existing schedule, makes Spirit the leading carrier to Myrtle Beach.”
